

Barker Public Library

Meeting Space Policy

Community groups that wish to hold a meeting in the library must have the approval of the Director. There are no fees associated with use but donations are always accepted.

Those wishing to use the library for community gatherings should contact the director in advance.

All rules and policies of the Barker Public Library shall be observed.

The responsible party making the arrangement for their group will also ensure the building is left in the same condition that it was upon arrival and the lights are off and doors are locked upon leaving.
