NOVELNY

NOVELny is an online library of hundreds of magazines, newspapers, maps, charts, research and reference books that are available to every New Yorker, free of charge.

Open access to this collection is available to everyone residing in New York State via a library card.

Each month we will spotlight one of the databases available to you through NovelNY . All are available on the library's website: barkerpubliclibrary.com just by clicking on the Search Catalog button and then the orange Database link on the right hand side of the page.

Ancestry.com New York

Portions of Ancestry.com pertaining to New York are free to NY state residents. The New York State Archives partnered with Ancestry to digitize some NY state records of interest to genealogists. This access requires a free Ancestry.com New York account. You will have free access only to the records available through Ancestry.com New York, not to the entire Ancestry database.
